The Staff

The John Cedarburg Baseball staff is comprised of professional scouts, players and coaches, College and High School coaches and current collegiate players. All instructors have extensive experience in scouting, coaching or playing and will provide the instruction for each individual.

John Cedarburg ~ Director ~ Cedarburg coached for 12 years at 3 different schools: South FL CC, Miss State, and was the Head Coach at Edison CC. He compiled the most wins and winning season (4) of any coach in the history of Edison baseball. Cedarburg has been scouting since 1997 and has been the recipient of 2 Scout of the Year awards-2002 Colorado Rockies and the 2011 South Florida Scouts award. He has been active in the Ft Myers community running camps, clinics and tournaments since 1993. He is the President of Southwest Florida Baseball Inc-SWFL-a non-profit organization that supports baseball in southwest Florida. SWFL baseball also runs competitive travel teams. Since 1998, 194 SWFL players have earned college scholarships and 48 have had the opportunity to chase the professional baseball dream.

Pete Garcia ~ Gulf Coast HS ~ Coach Garcia has been coaching and involved with camps & clinics since 1995. He was an assistant at Edison CC during 4 winning years and then he moved into the HS ranks as head coach at Palmetto Ridge HS. Pete is currently an assistant at GCHS.

Gary Kamphouse ~ N. Fort Myers HS ~ Gary has been the head coach at N Ft Myers HS since 1998. He had a distinguished college career at FL Atlantic University where he still holds some hitting records.

Tommy Watkins ~ Minnesota Twins ~ Proclaimed as the "Mayor" of Ft. Myers during his Miracle playing days. Tommy made his major league debut in 2007 and is now a Hitting Coach for the Beloit Snappers (MN Twins).

Mike Christensen ~ Fort Myers HS ~ Mike has been the head coach at FMHS since 2007. He spent 6 years in pro ball with Anaheim, White Sox and MN Twins. High energy coach who blends pro and amateur styles effectively.

Clint Montgomery ~ Island Coast HS ~ Played collegiately at Lake Sumter and FGCU. Was named Island Coast HS Head Coach in 2008. He guided the Gators to a district championship in 2009.

Instructional Philosophy:

The instructional philosophy of the Cedarburg Baseball Camp is provide the best instruction that you can get in a camp setting. Professional coaches with extensive experience at the collegiate and professional level are ready and willing to give each player professional techniques that are used by the pros. All areas of the game are addressed and a variety of drills, practice groups and situational games assist in driving the point home while providing instructional drills for each player to take home with them. The Cedarburg Baseball Camp strives to provide a creative baseball atmosphere so that each player will improve his game and get ready for the spring season.

Daily Schedule:

Stretch: Flexibility warm-up, preparing the body for baseball movements.

Speed Training: Drills and activities to help you get faster.

Baseball Activity: Sliding, base running, bunting

Hitting Stations: Drill work designed to improve the swing.

Defensive Stations: Each position will have an individual coach.

Pitching Mechanics: Proper mechanics to improve the delivery and maximize velocity

Simulated Games: Game time to work on technique and play the game.
